RESULTS OF THE ELECTION.

APPARENTLY NO ADVANTAGE GAINED BY RITHER PARTY.

Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Massachusetts Give Increased Sepublican Majorities -New York, Virginia, and Maryland Democratic-Fellows Elected District

General elections were held in twelve states yesterday, and the results show no overthrow of the political status in any of them except New Jersey, where the Republicans seem to have carried the legislature by a good working majority. In the Re-publican states of Massachusetts and Ohio governors Ames and Foraker have been reelected by gratifying increased plural-ties. The possibility of the congressional delegations from the states being equally divided, which would cause embarrasing complications should the presidential election be thrown into the house, has been happily averted by the election of a Rerublican congressman from the second Rhode Island district. This gives a Republican majority of states in the House of Representatives.

a Regublican congressman from the second Rhode Island district. This gives a Republican majority of states in the House of Representatives.

While deep interest was felt in the elections in Ohio and Massachuaetts, owing to the extreme partisan bitterness of the campaign, yet the most intense feeling was manifested in the state and county elections in New York. Peculiar features were introduced in the campaign, and no definite indications of the result could be gleaned from the opening of the campaign until the ballot boxes were opened. In New York city the vote was very heavy, reaching 212,400. In New York city Cook, Dem. defeats Grant, Rep., for secretary of state by 55.030, and to this must be sedded Cook's majority of about 11,000 in Kings county, which includes Brooklyn. In the interior of the state the yote fell off about 10 per cent, on that of the gubernatorial election of 1885, but the party vote was comparatively the same. The indications are that the Democrate have carried the state, but the Republican state committee claim that the state is in doubt. The Democratic state committee claim the state by 20,000 plurality. In the state the George or Labor party vote fell off.

The campaign in New York city has been characterized by the vilest and most bitterly dirty newspaper warfare of recent years. It arose from the recent boodle trials, the nomination of John R. Fellows by the regular Democratic party for district attorney, and the indoresement of Assistant District Attorney De Lancey Nicoll by the Republicans and independent voters of all parties. It is to be regarded more as a newspaper victory than a partiesan triumph, Fellows is elected district attorney by about 20,000, and with him the entire Democratic of seconds.

The campaign in Virginia has been one of the most office of seconds recent recent.

The campaign in Virginia has been one of the most active of recent years. The Republicaus of the Old Dominion worked Republicans of the Oid Dominion worked carnestly and vigorously, and have the consolation of knowing they have made gratifying inroads in hitherto Democratic strongholds. In Alexandria county, a supposedly impregnable stronghold of Democracy, a Republican has been elected to the house of delegates, an occurrence so startling the delegates, an occurrence so starting the Democrats have not yet recovered from its effect. The legislature is, however, apparently Democratic, but there is hope that in 1888 the Old Dominon may be brought into line for the Republican presidential candidate.

Pennsylvania comes to the front with increased kepublican majorities throughout, and on a light vote elects its entire ticket by 25,000 plurality. Two Republican candidates in Philadelphia have been sacrificed to personal blekerings and unreasonable assaults on character.

to personal blekerings and unreasonable assaults on character.

The result may be summed up as each party having held its own, while the Republicans have lost no vantage for the great national contest of next year.

He complained of a sore throat and fatigue, and went home very early. De Lancey Nicoll also called. He admitted the election of Col. Fellows, placing his piturality at about 20,000. Jackson Elected Governor—The Legis-lature Democratic.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 8.—The election to-day passed off very quietly in this city and throughout the state, as far as heard from. There were three tickets-Democratic, Republican, and Prohibition. There was a falling off in the vote of this city, but the publican, and Frontolion. There was a falling off in the vote of this city, but the polls not closing until 6 o'clock, and a long ticket, made the count very slow. There were few complaints of repeating, and none of ballot-box stuffing. The officers voted for were governor, attorney general, comptroller of the treasury, state's attorney, sheriff, city surveyor, associate judge of the supreme bench of Battimore, clerk of the supreme bench of Battimore, clerk of the city court, judges of the orphans' court, and members of the legislature. In the semate 11 members, all Democrats, hold over, and 15 were voted for. The last senste atood 29 Democrats and 4 Republicans, and the last house of delegates stood 81 Democrats and 10 Republicans. The indications at 1 o'clock this morning indicate that the majority for E. E. Jackson, Dem., for governor will be from 10,000 to 12,000 over Walter B. Brooks, Rep., and for W. P. Whyte, Dem., for comptroller over R. B. Dixon, Rep., will be about the same. The legislature will be largely Democratic in both branches. The Prohibition vote was amall.

At 12.00 a. m. only four wards are comcers voted for were governor, attorney general, comptroller of the treasury, state's attorney, sheriff, city surveyor, associate judge of the supreme bench of Baltimore, clerk of the city court, judges of the orphans' court, and members of the legislature. In the semate 11 members, all Democrats, hold over, and 15 were voted for. The last sensite atood 29 Democrats and 4 Republicans, and the last house of delegates stood 81 Democrats and 10 Republicans. Whyte, Dem., for attorney general over Francis Miller, Rep., and Victor L. Baughman, Dem., for comptroller over R. B. Dixon, Rep., will be about the same. The legislature will be largely Democratic in both branches. The Prohibition vote was assall.

At 12:00 a. m. only four wards are complete. They give Jackson 4,037 majority. The Prohibition vote is insignificant, and the Knight of Labor resolutions against Jackson seem to have had no effect. The constitutional convention will be defeated in the state by 15,000 majority. Forty-three precincts of libis city give Jackson 5,118 majority over Brooks.

The Democrats elect the full city ticket as follows: Sheriff, states attorney, clerk of the survey cle the city court, associate Judge of supreme court, three judges of orphaus' court, city surveyor. The Democrats also elect tue entire twelve delegates to the legislature from the first and second legislature from the counting of the vote in Baltimore will not be completed for several hours. The indications from the returns received show a Democratic majority of about 6,000, and all the Democrats are elected. Jackson, for governor, ran behind the ticket because of the opposition of a pertion of the Kuights of Labor. The entire legislative ticket in the city, including two senators and eighteen members of the house of delegates, are elected.

3:30 A. N.—With seven precincts of the city to hearfrom the Democratic ticket has a majority of about 4,00. The entire ticket is certainly elected though, the county returns are coming in very slowly and Republican gains are shown in several legislative districts. It is impossible to give an idea of the complection of the legislature, though the Democratic majority is believed to be about 65 on joint ballot.

imes Re-Elected Governor by an Increased Plurality. BOSTON, MASS., Nov. 8.—9:30 P. M.—The lection of Oliver Ames as governor is, at this hour, generally conceded on all sides, and the returns favor the belief that the claims of an increased plurality for their candidate by the Republicans are well founded. Although the fight on the gubercandidate by the Republicans are well founded. Although the fight on the guber-natorial ticket has been an exceedingly warm one, there have been a number of contests among senstorial and representative candidates which have been almost unprecedented for bitterness. These have, because of this bitterness, provoked even more interest and excitemant than were occasioned by the contest for the governership. Probably the bitterness and than were occasioned by the contest for the governership. Probably the bitterest senatorial fight was that in the fourth Suffolk district, in which Sullivan, Democrat, has defeated E. J. NEARING THE END OF LIFE. PREPARATIONS FOR THE EXECUTION

OF THE ANARCHISTS.

Their Every Movement Watched and Extra Precautions Taken-Parsons's Again-She Heaps Curses on Every-

CHICAGO, Nov. S .- Spies, Parsons, Fielden, Schwab, Fischer, and Engel were let out of their cells at 9 o'clock this morning, and for an hour they stretched their legs in the cell house inclosure. Every movement of the condemned men was watched by bailiffs, one of whom was assigned to each man. The bailtiffs walked up and down the exercise space with their charges, whom they did not allow more than five or six fee away from them. They were alert to pre vent any attempt at violence or suicide. They were not allowed to approach any of the other prisoners. During the hour breakfast was served them, while they were eating, the balliffs stood at the cell doors and watched them, and when they were done the knives, forks, and dishes were quickly removed. All the men except Eng el ate with tolerable appetite. Waile the men were exercising each cell was searched minutely. Nothing suspicious was disclosed. Miss Van Zandt and Mrs. Fischer were the only visitors at the juli, except Rev. W. H. Bolton, of the Methodist Church, Miss Van Zandt talked to Spies three or four minutes, with a bailiff within bander distance.

"He is like a cared tiger," said Sheriff Matson when Lingar was taken from his cell to give the baillif a chance to search it. Two deputies watched him as he atrode up and down the examining cage with nervous, restless movements. The jailer took two clocks from the cell, the only pieces of metal left to him. As soon as the search was over Lingar was boited in again. This is the first exercise he had been given since the finding of the bombs. Eight baskets of grapes were brought to the jail. Nothing edible is allowed to go to the prisoners from the cutside for fear of poison being conveyed to them. The grapes were sent by John Brown, ir., and were given to the wives and friends of the prisoners.

The police authorities are as mysterious as ever concerning the extent and character of their preparations for Friday, and nothing can be learned except from observation. It is rumored that the mayor will issue a proclamation closing the saloons on that day in order to prevent the gathering of turbulent characters and in order to shut eff whisky from them.

A loaded dynamite bomb was found this morning on West Van Buren street, not far from a polling place, where voting was in progress. The bomb was made out of a large gas pipe, and was eight inches long. The cads were closed with iron tops, screwed firmly on. The fuse was attached at the center of the bomb.

The dark-akined wife of Anarchist Parsons has at last abandoned hope. Last evening she said: "My husband is dead to me, and I return home to my children to mourn for him. I spoke good bye to him for the last time this afternoon, for I will never cross the threshold of the jail again to be insulted and humiliated. The other women can go there and grovel before the men who turned us out this afternoon, but I will never go until I can sit at the side of my husband and talk with him without an infamous guard at my side. I want to live with the picture of my husband in a dungeon ever before my eyes. That wi tion to-day.

"If I do not hear from the governor by to-morrow night," said the sheriff, "I shal at once begin the work of creeting the scaffolds. We have almost sufficient material on hand to hang all the men, and, aside from a few beams and planks, no new timber will be required.

"Jaflor Folz and deputies, whom I have not yet selected, will adjust the nooses, and I will be present to superintend the whole, while a force of deputy sheriffs, police, and balliffs will be in readiness to render any assistance necessary.

"As provided in the statutes of this state I will swear in a jury of twelve, two of

"As provided in the statutes of this state I will swear in a jury of twelve, two of whom must be physicians to view the bodies. They and the lawyers in the case and the press representatives will be the only ones allowed to witness the execution. The six Posey county 'reporters' and 'patent inside' fakirs will not be allowed in, and a small army of these country press gentlemen, who have requested passes, will be disappointed, and only the representatives of the Chicago press and the big dailies in other large cities will be the lucky or unlucky ones, just as you please to put it."

The sheriff is evidently not pleased with the prospect of the ghastly business before him, and he looked as solemn as a Dominican monk during the time he was giving the details of the nerve-destroying preparations. But the sheriff has plenty of American pluck, is far from being chickenhearted, and will do his duty without flinching. The "material" spoken of by the sheriff consists of two old gallows, across which murderer Mulkowski and the three Italians stepped to death. The former will be enlarged so as to hold four victims. The latter is already big enough to hang three more.

The materion of the women's department be enlarged so as to hold four victims. The latter is already big enough to hang three more.

The matron of the women's department of the jail purchased a lot of white cotton cloth and a lot of white tape. This cotton cloth and a lot of white tape. This cotton cloth is to be made into garments that are intended to be used next Friday, and the tape is to supply strings for these garments. The cloth had not been cut up at 1 o'clock, but some time during the afternoon the necessary tailoring was to be done. This white cotton stuff is the material for the shrouds, and whether there is to be a harging at the jail next Friday or not the shrouds will be in process of preparation this afternoon. Slowly but surely all the needful details that become a part of a legal execution are being perfected. Deputy Sheriff Gleason obtained a rope at the jail yesterday that was used to choke one of the Italians. The deputy sheriff wauted to study the knot that was used so effectually on that occasion. This fastening was the work of a Swedish ssilor, and was a masterojece in its way. It worked to a charm. There wasn't the slightest nitch in the whole proceeding, and Sheriff Matson is desirous of having the affair of next Friday pass off as smoothly, and will make use of the same knot. All these matters bespeak a belief on the part of the sheriff that he will be required to hang somebody next Friday. At all events, he is preparing himself for the event. The gallows can easily be put together in an hour, as all its parts go ofcely, and any good carpenter can do the work.

Chief of Police Ebersold, who is in constant telegraphic communication with all together in an hour, sa all its parts go nicely, and any good carpenter can do the work.

Chief of Police Ebersold, who is in constant telegraphic communication with all references to the principal cities, says that the rumor that anarchists are coming here from other places is not warranted by the facts. Instead of anarchists coming here, the few in the city are leaving it. "There need be no uneasiness," he said, "of any demonstration by smypathizers with the anarchists, Guards are placed over the public buildings, at the water works, &c., merely to instant any possible contingency, and not because we fear any actual violence."

The proprietors of gun stores are making arrangements to store their stock of weapons in vaults and to place extra guards over them on the day of the execution.

A suggestion of the resolution includes a that may at any moment happen in the county jail prior to the execution of the starchists was developed this afternoon when Engel sent out to his wife what was to all appearances simply a bisket of dirty dishes and very soiled linen. Although the stuff was not going to, but from the smarchists, one of the deputies became suspicious of Eugel's soileitude concerning the rubbish. Institution a burried search, the official soon saw the cause of Engel's anxiety. Hidden away among the dith smeared contents of the basket was a secret note in German to the artarchist's crabbed looking little wife, who stood close at hand witching with strange cargeness. As the erumpled paper was brought forth she sail Engel exchanged glances, and then turned strilly away. The note stated briefly that Engel exchanged glances, and then turned strilly away. The note stated briefly that Engel exchanged glances, and then turned strilly away. The note stated briefly that Engel would again attempt suicide before Friday, and that he would never die on the gallows. Immediately precautions were ordered taken, so that henceforth every move of Engel from now till be goes to the scaffold will be within arm's reach of a guard.

Oglesby this morning in reference to the anarchist case, far the greater portion being, as usual, from Chicago, it is asserted with confidence that, contrary to the rules heretofore, the proportion of demands for execution were greatly in excess of requests for elemency. This change of sentiment has undoubtedly been cassioned by the finding of the bombs in Lings's cell. A state bouse rumor save that two more threatening letters were received by the governor this morning, and, according to the invariable custom, were promptly consigned to the fames. Gov. NOT MUCH ENTHUSIASM

Manifested in the Reception of the Election Returns

The crowd down town last night was not an extraordinarily large one nor did its enthusiasm, if it had any, find vent in noisy demonstration. The majority of those interested in politics stayed in the immediate neighborhood of the RETURICAN office and gazed with straining eyebalis at pictorial representations of attaches of the Post engaged in performing wonderful gastronemic and other feats, all on a large screen and presented to the public by the sid of a magic lantern and with assistance of the before mentioned attaches. Occasionally, when the crowd had grown weary of "The old woman who lived in a shoe" and of Mother Goose rhymes, an election dispatch would put in an appearance; then there would possibly be a cheer—from the boys anyhow.

At the headquarters of the various clubs and associations anxious members sat and waited until after midnight for the returns that came slowly in. The excitement generally was far below the average, although occasionally a Virginia Republican would whoop a little on the result in Alexandris, and it has cause a counter yell from a representative of the New York Democracy.

There was an entire absence of ill-feeling, and if there were any personal encounters the police knew nothing of them. The crowd down town last night was not Bur-leigh, who, upon refusing to instantly obey the command of the constable to "move on," was hustled off to Bow street on a charge of loitering and vagrancy. The absurdity of the last mentioned specification is strongly apparent in view of the fact that Mr. Burleigh is employed on the Daily Telegraph at a salary probably exceeding that of the chief commissioner of the metro-politan police, Sir Charles Warren, bimself, and his loitering consisted in resenting the gruff command of a "bobby" to "move on" by doing so at his leisure. IMBITATED AT KALNOKY'S SPEECH.

St. PETRISHURG, NOV. S.—The speech of Count Kalboky, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, to the Hungarian delegation on Saturday has had an irritating effect here. The newspapers counsel the government to take diplomatic action with a view to elicit from other powers than Austria a distinct declaration as to whether they desire to insure respect for the Beilin treaty. This they advise in order that, in the event of the powers refusing to give such a declaration, Russia may have freedom of action in protecting her interests. Diplomatic circles, however, hold more moderate views, and prefer to await the conclusion of the debate in the Hungarian delegation before judging the Austro-Hungarian policy.

The programme of close union with Germany was welcomed in Europe, and had resu ted is the adhesion of Italy. Another important factor was moving in the same direction. The powers in alliance therefore had reason to hope for the support of England, whose interests in the cast coincided with Austria's and italy's. In conclusion he said that he could not give a guarantee of peace under all circumstances, but he had increased considered in the result of their united efforts.
